

Matthew Ellsworth

DevOps Engineer

Professional Experience

Rackspace: DevOps Engineer II

10/2012 – Present

- Deployed and maintained customer production cloud infrastructure
 - Hosted on Rackspace and AWS platforms
 - Developed Automation and CI/CD for customers
 - Supported diverse application stacks
 - 99% Open-source technology

Select Staffing: Sr. Systems Engineer

03/2011 – 10/2012

- Supported production corporate infrastructure for 300+ locations
 - Researched and implemented virtualization strategy
 - Migrated legacy servers to VMware infrastructure
 - Managed 2 office locations and 3 hosting facilities

Guident: Systems Engineer

03/2009 – 03/2011

- Development operations and client consultation
 - Provided operational support for development teams
 - Participated in client site visits and architecture meetings
 - Managed colo facility and development XenServer infrastructure

Labyrinth Consulting: Virtualization Administrator

02/2008 – 02/2009

- Built and operated XenSource infrastructure for development teams
 - Integrated with multiple development teams
 - Wrote technical product documentation
 - On call for production deployments
 - Participated in 24/7 pager duty

Impulse Internet: Systems Administrator

02/2007 – 01/ 2008

- Provided L1 Support for Local ISP services
 - Web Hosting, T1 and Dial-up lines
 - Communicated with engineering teams and customers
 - Mentored new hires and maintained company wiki

Skills Summary

Automation, CI/CD	Chef, Puppet, SaltStack, Ansible, CircleCI, Jenkins, Git
Virtualization/Cloud	AWS, Google compute, Rackspace, VMware, XenServer
Programming Languages	Ruby, Python, JavaScript, BASH
Datastores	Redis, MongoDB, MySQL, Postgresql, Varnish, Memcache
Networking	f5 Load Balancing, Cisco Switch and Router Configuration
Monitoring	Nagios, Graphite, Monit, New Relic, ELK
Application Stacks	Ruby on Rails, LAMP, LNMP, MEAN
Certifications	AWS Solutions Architect Professional, ITIL, RHCSA
